

Why have you decided to take the Digital Marketing Nanodegree Program?

As a person would like to learn what is Digital Marketing and how does it provide the benefits in our life as students, freelancers, businessmen, from the basic to advanced level. The Digital Marketing Nanodegree by Udacity is the best online course after searching and see the experiences of who took this program before due to providing mentors sessions online weekly, interactive platforms via Slack, Student Hub any time.

Also, you will learn the essentials of digital marketing and how you will make success campaigns step by step by implementing what you learn on real platforms to see the results as Hootsuite, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Medium, LinkedIn ... etc. That way of learning will make you get the real experiences, will see how you get benefits from the program by getting the real results. will see how the audience interacts with your campaigns and will know how to catch your audience and their needs.

Finally, I strongly recommend this program for YOU when you would like to be a Digital Marketer.
